Dear Supporter,

With your help, for nineteen years the Children's Bereavement Center (CBC) has provided free grief support groups to thousands of individuals, empowering children, teens, young adults, parents and caregivers build resilience and find hope again after loss. The CBC is now serving Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties in collaboration with VITAS Healthcare.

We are excited to announce that this year's Rockin' on the Green will take place on Saturday, April 28, 2018 at the Donna E. Shalala Student Center on the University of Miami Campus. This casual and fun evening will include a delicious catered dinner, live music, a mystery jewelry box drawing and exciting live and silent auctions.

We have the privilege this year to honor outstanding individuals who have been instrumental to the CBC's growth. Please join us in celebrating our good friends Ashleigh and Alec Lindenauer and Nancy Hector for their tremendous dedication and contribution to the CBC.

Your generous support is needed to continue the vital work of the CBC. The CBC is South Florida's only nonprofit center dedicated to helping grieving children and families.

Join the celebration on April 28th, along with more than 500 guests. Please consider an event sponsorship or a donation to our auction; CBC sponsors and auction donors will be acknowledged at our event and in our marketing materials, social media platforms and event website.

You can help us turn lives around after loss and provide comfort and caring when our children need it most. We look forward to seeing you at Rockin' on the Green!

Thanking you in advance,

Mindy E. Cassel, Ph.D.

Why Participate?

Help children and families in our community who have suffered the death of a loved one by becoming a sponsor at the Children's Bereavement Center (CBC) annual event Rockin' on the Green. With your sponsorship, the CBC continues to offer FREE peer support groups to grieving children, teens, adults and families, empowering them with the skills and resources needed to build resilience and hope after loss. The CBC, in partnership with VITAS Healthcare®, now offers free peer support groups throughout Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties, serving over 1500 participants annually. As internationally recognized experts in bereavement and loss, the CBC educates over 10,000 professionals and South Floridians each year, in addition to presenting at national conferences.
