Dear Friend and Supporter,

As CBC celebrates our 25th anniversary, we hope you will join us as a sponsor for our annual event, Rockin' 25 Years, April 6, 2024. After providing grief support for a quarter of a century in the South Florida community, your participation and sponsorship is more vital now than ever before.

Since 1999, the Children's Bereavement Center (CBC) has provided free grief support groups for thousands of South Floridians, empowering children, teens, and adults to build resilience and hope after the loss of a loved one. And with the creation of our online grief support group program in 2020 for all ages, we have been able to expand the number of people we serve as well as increase access and reach of our bereavement services.

Through our many partnerships, our community continues to inspire hope and resiliency together despite the many hurdles over the past several years. Those who are grieving the loss of a loved one turn to CBC for support which we provide for those locally in South Florida as well as nationwide. Our services are critical as one in 11 children in Florida experience the loss of a parent or sibling before the age of 18. Our region is a melting pot of cultures across the world and our groups reflect that by being diverse and inclusive, welcoming all so that no one has to grieve alone.

Together, we can reach more grieving families as your sponsorship will enable CBC to continue offering FREE grief support groups now and in the future. It will also allow us to continue our important community initiatives, including the expansion of our Spanish and Creole-language grief resources and services, our dedicated Perinatal and Infant Loss Groups, and most recently groups for parents and caregivers who have lost a child of any age. This in addition to the expansion of our grief education and training programs for leaders and professionals across the entire region, brings CBC at the forefront in making South Florida grief-informed.

You can help us change the course of lives after loss by providing support when people need it most. In our 25 years of service, we have learned that grief is meant to be shared. CBC offers that place - where children, teens and adults find camaraderie, confidence and hope for a life after loss.

With gratitude,

Debra Albo-Steiger, LCSW Chief Executive Officer

Celebrating Our Service

Children's Bereavement Center will be Rockin' 25 Years on Saturday, April 6th, 2024 to celebrate our years of service providing grief support groups in South Florida.

This year, we will host our friends and supporters in the Flamingo Room at Gulfstream Park for a festive gathering with delicious food, dancing, mingling, silent auction, and fun. We will share stories from CBC paricipants who have found hope and strength through group support. We will recognize our 25 years of growth and honor just some of our many champions who believe in providing grief support for all.

The biggest impact attendees and sponsors can make at Rockin' is to Sponsor-A-Child. For every $1,500, a child can attend CBC grief support groups for an entire year for free. Help us support more grieving children and families with the tools and support they need.
